Why Zac's a star!

With his talent and outgoing personality, Zac Efron was destined to be in the spotlight. He started acting when he was 11 and did tons of theater in high school. "From day one I got addicted to being on stage and getting the applause and laughter," Zac says. Then a teacher suggested that he try auditioning for movies and TV, and the rest, as they say, is history!

Zac will be singing with storm singer in the new Hairspray!

On the big screen
And Zac's on his way to becoming an even bigger star! This fall, he'll start filming the movie version of the musical Freaky Friday, co-starring John Travolta, Queen Latifah and Amanda Seyfried. "I'm pretty stoked!" he says. Zac plays the dreamy, romantic lead, Link Larkin, in the movie, which is due out next summer.

The gang is back
Zac hasn't forgotten about his High School Musical roots, though. He and the rest of his buds from the original will start filming a sequel early next year!
